

HENRY ALKEN
—
CARTOONS

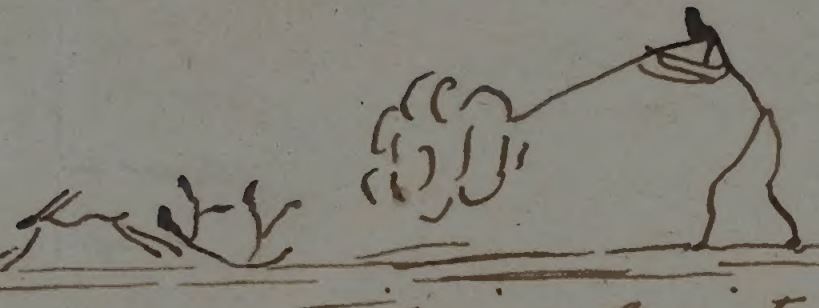

Ex Libris
JOHN AND MARTHA DANIELS

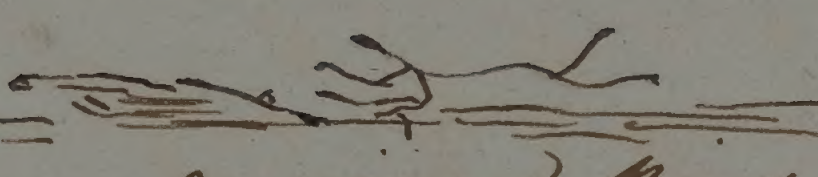

8291
LSIK
118

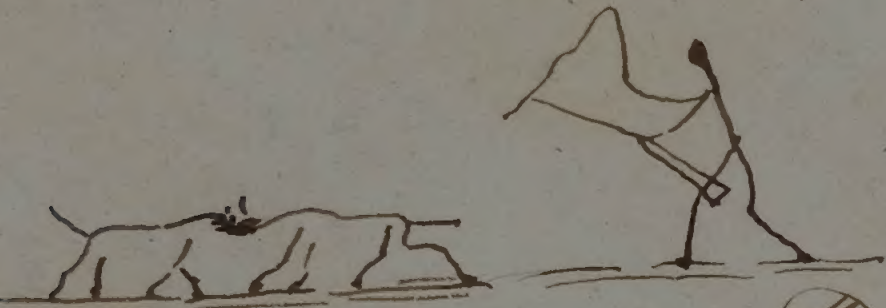

Advantages of a hair trigger. Keep up your muzzle.

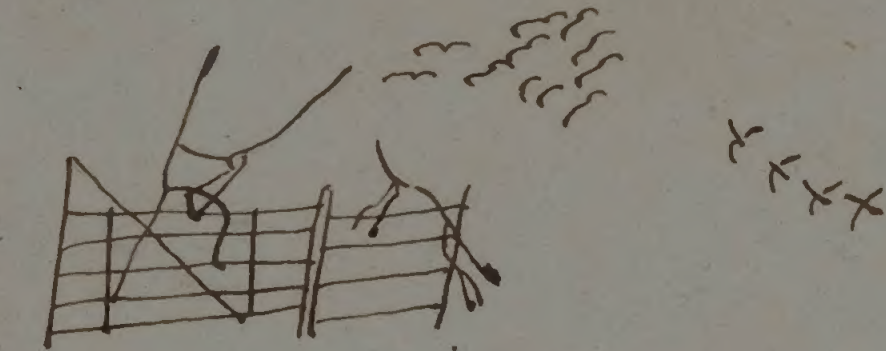

A trifling mistake.

A winged bird.

Rather hard mouthed. A little wild.

Water's out.

Clever shooting horse.

Eager sportsman.

Not quite steady.

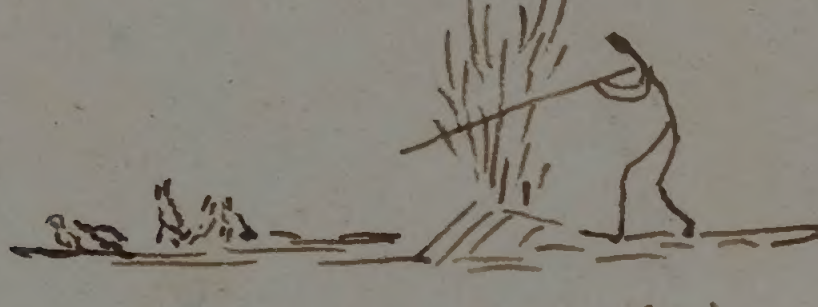

16. He shot at a Jack snipe there he goes again.

Gentle discipline.

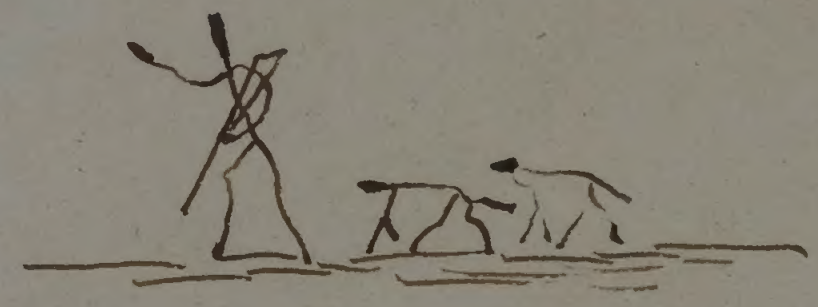

Ill thank you for your name Sir.

Making sure.

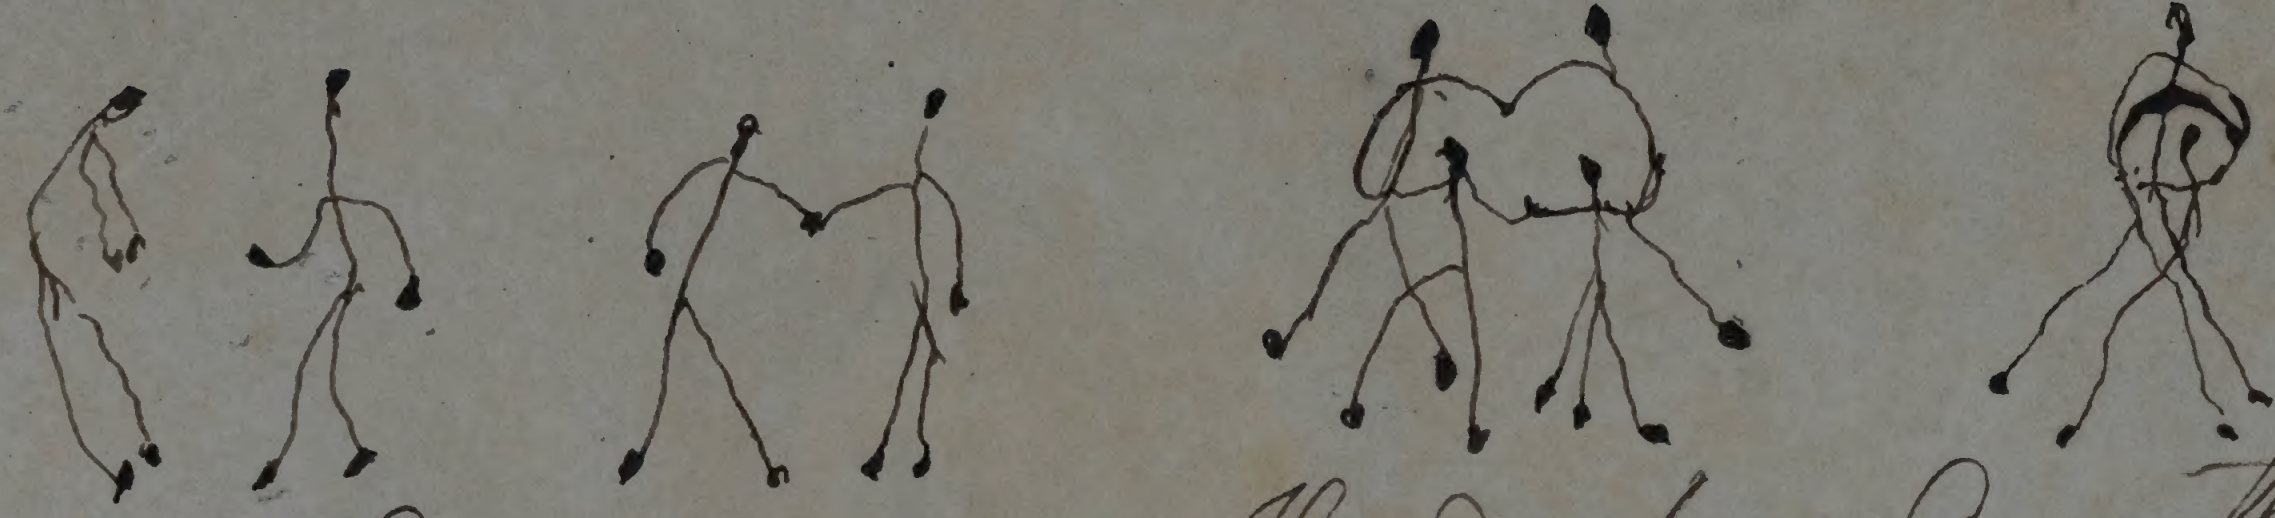

Wet afternoon.

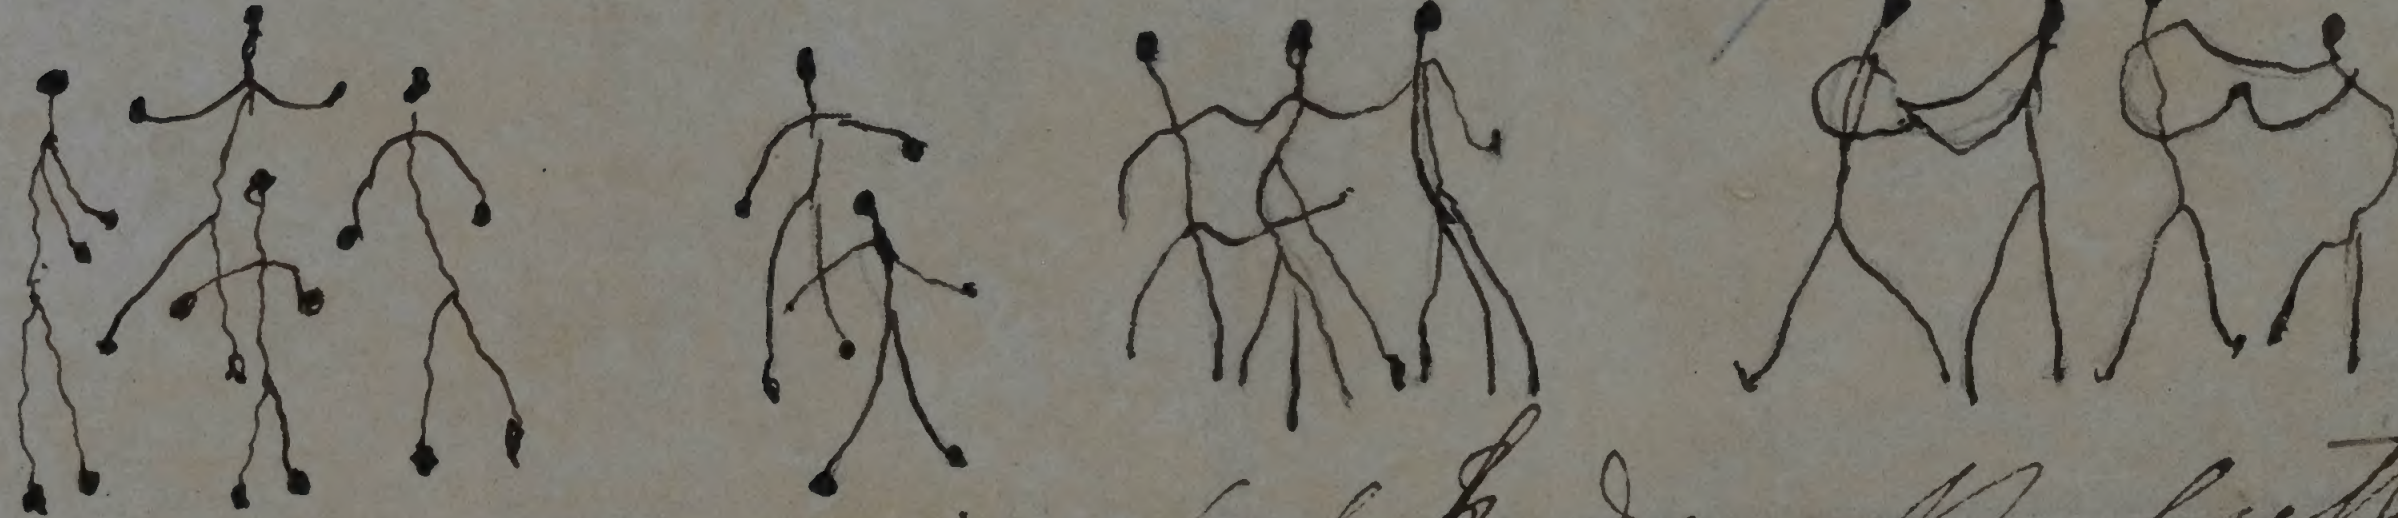

Hee away.

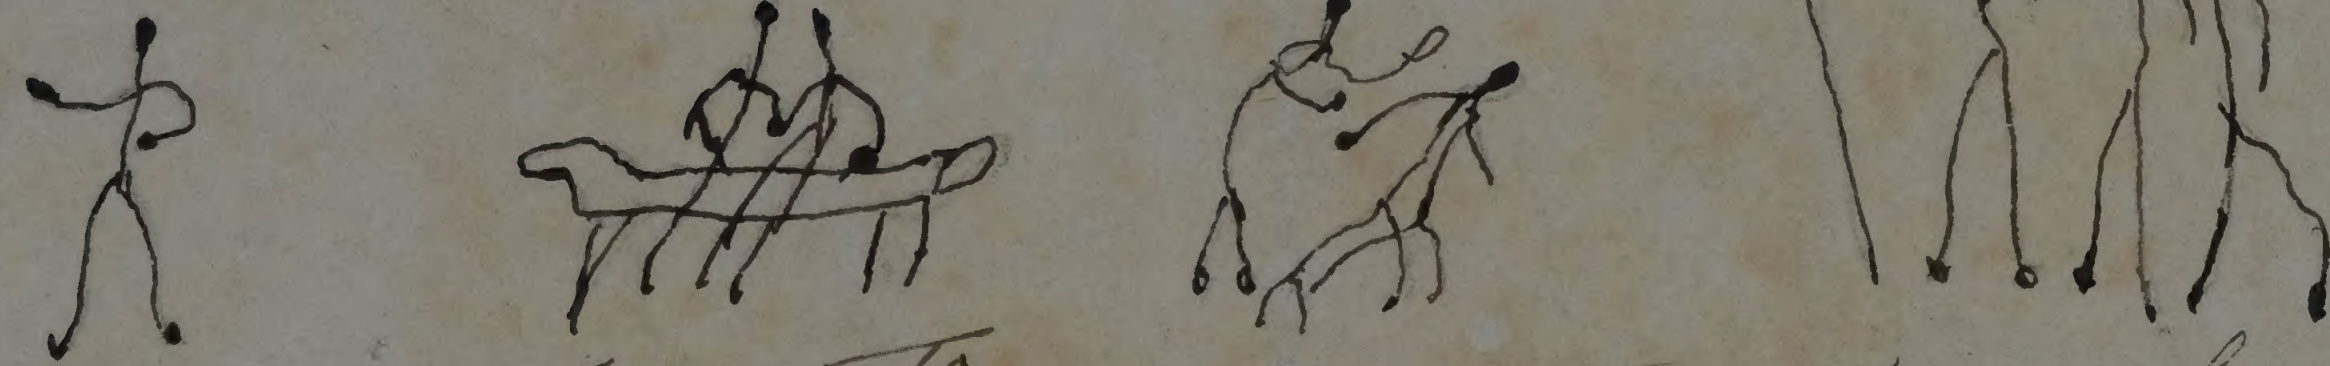

H. Alker.

Asking to dance leading out Hands four Down the Middle

Right & left Setting loops Hands Round with

Round pipe Little circle Leaning Taking home Royalty

H. ALKEN.

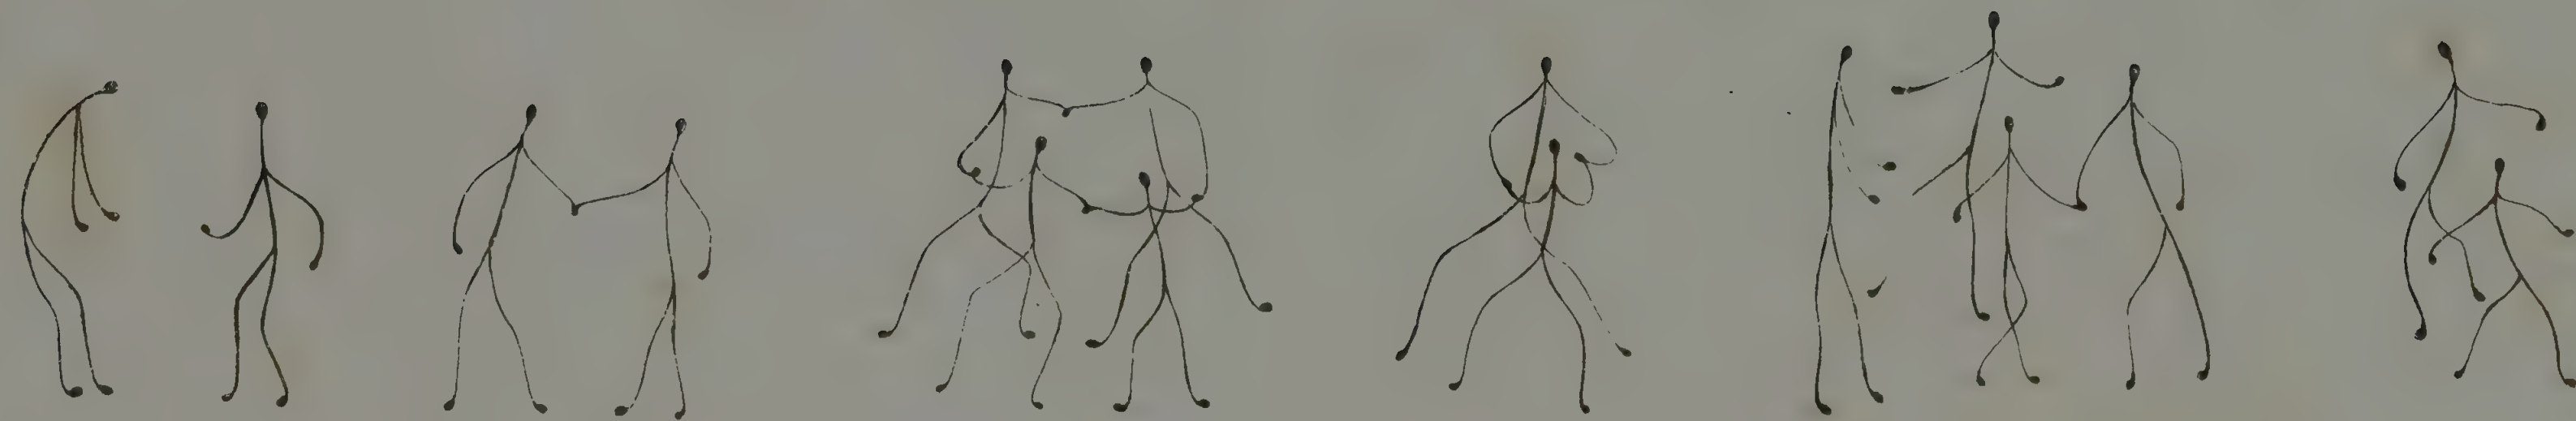

Asking to dance, Leaping out, Settling, Flanels four, Down the middle, Right & Left

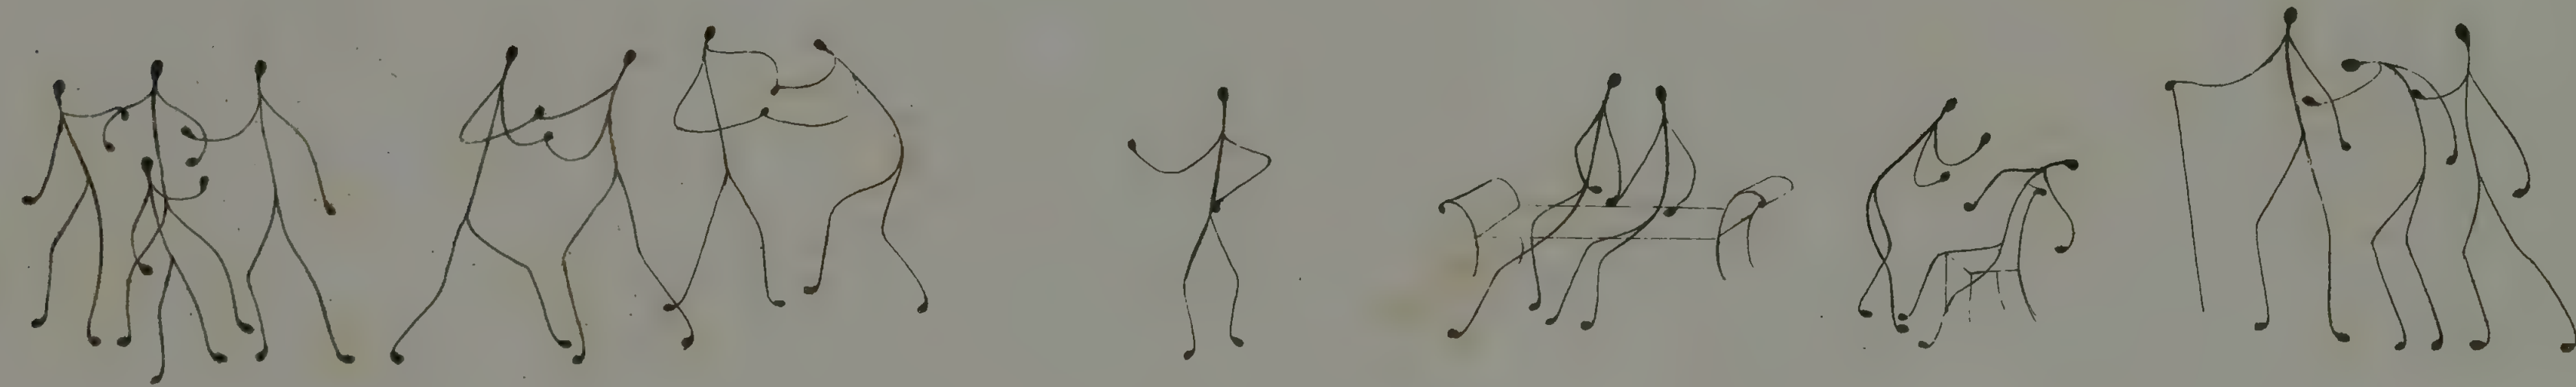

H. Allen.

Flanels four, Poussette, Tête à Tête, Hornpipe, Twirling, Taking home Royal

An English Country Dance caricatured by the French asking to dance Leading out Hands four round Down the middle Right and left Setting

Cross hands Puffette Hornpipe Tele à tele Pointing Taking home royal

H. ALKEN

Introduction
H. Olliver.

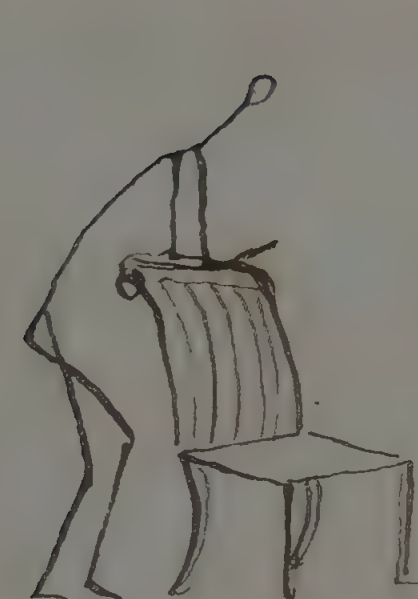

Will you do me the honor
to dance?

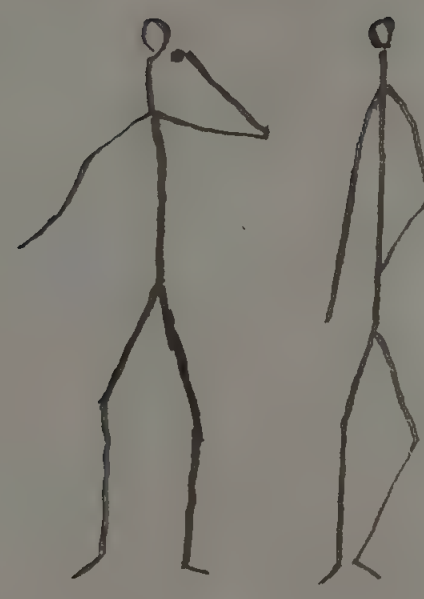

Sir I'm engaged

Leading out.

I don't dance I prefer looking on

Good she's pretty

Oh how slippery!
I wish they'd bring
some shalke

Salts! salts!
she's fainting!

Tête-à-tête

H. Olliver

Mount

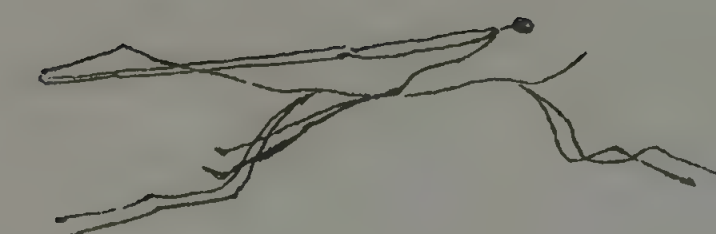

Mounted

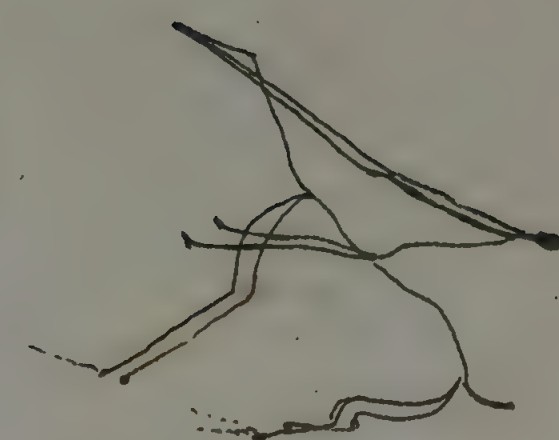

Canter

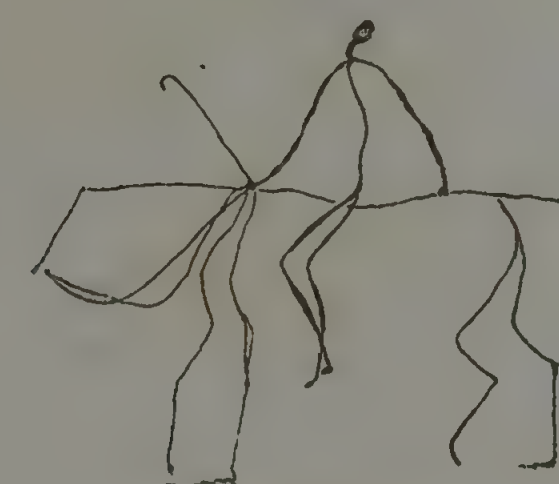

Gallop

Endeavouring to stop

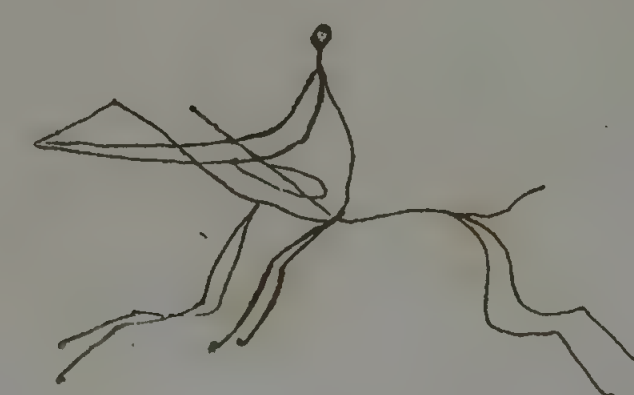

Stop

With ease

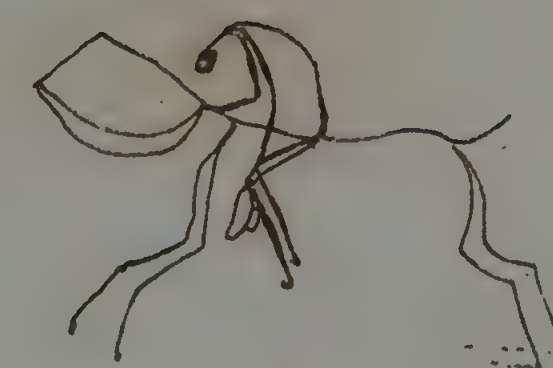

Going to a Race

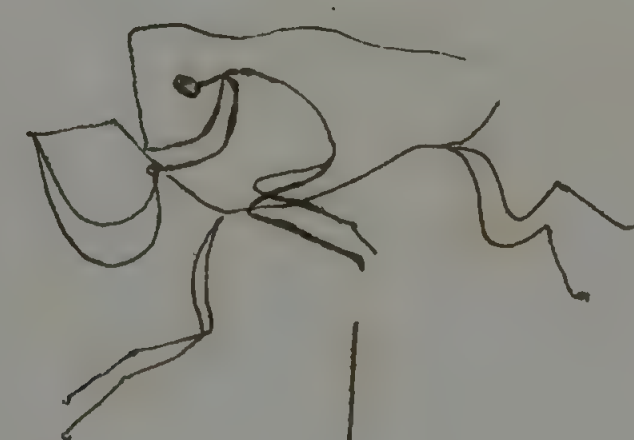

In Style

a Trot

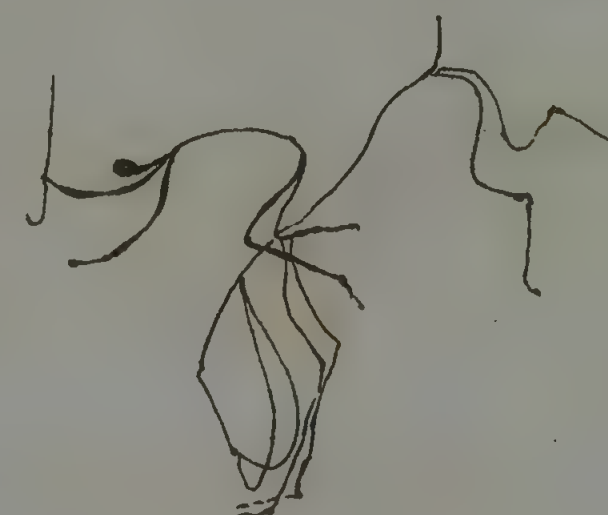

a Bow

a Leap

a Rear

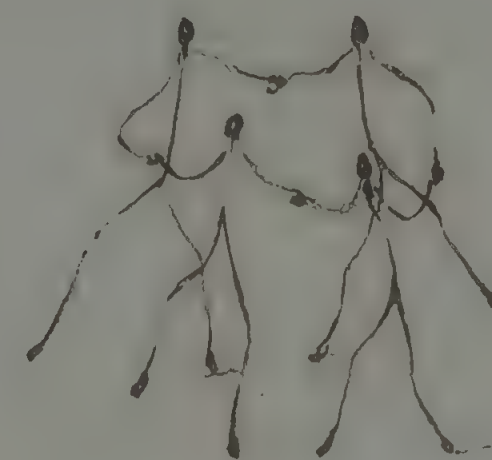

a Kick

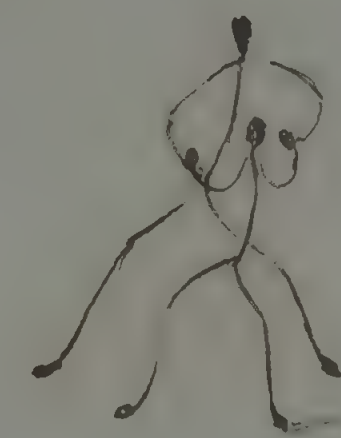

Asking to dance

Leading out

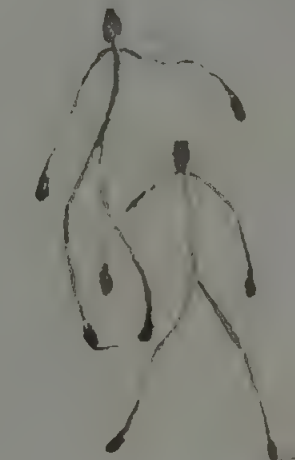

Hands four round

Down the middle

Right and left

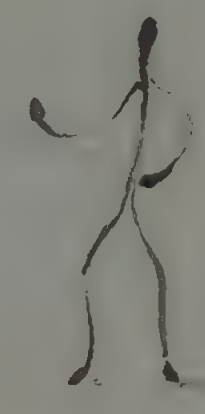

Settling

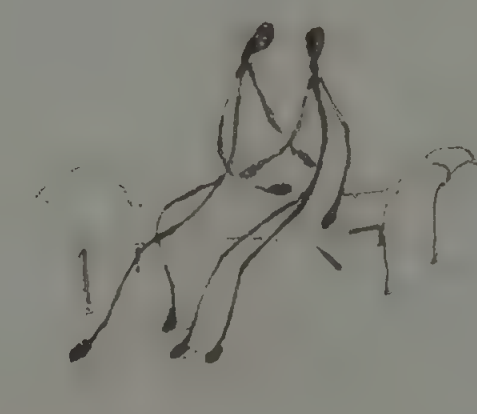

Hands across

Poussette

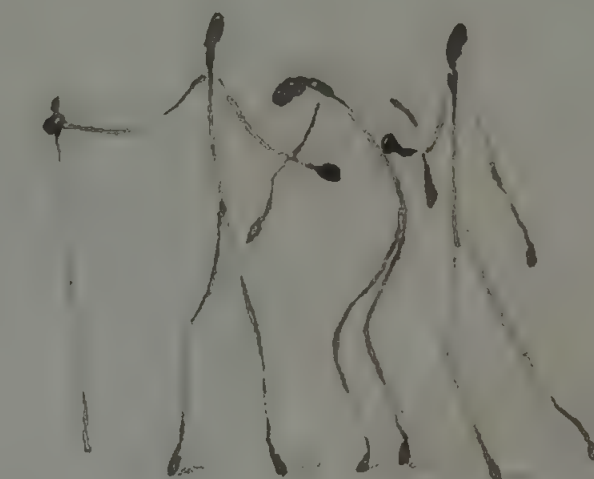

Hornpipe

Tete a Tete

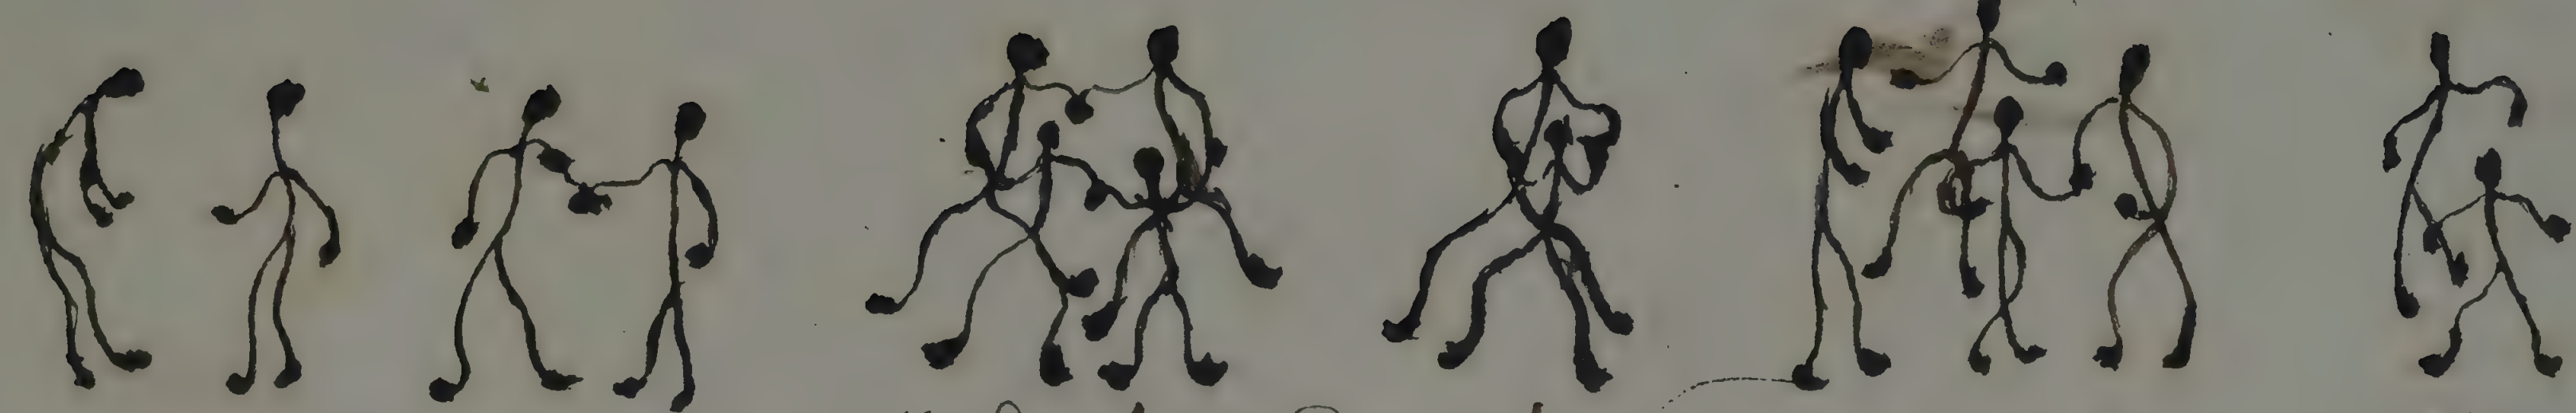

Fairling

Taking home royal

H. Alker.

Asking to dance, Leading out, ^{Hands from} round, ^{Down the} middle, ^{Right a left}, ^{Setting}

Cross hands, ^{Walker} Poufette, Hornpipe, Tete a tete, Hambo, Taking home ^{Moyal}

